

PUBLISHED BY THE LADIES OF NOTRE DAME & SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE

VOLUME 48 NUMBER 2

NOVEMBER 2013

From the PRESIDENT . . .

As I mentioned at the Opening Reception, I have never met a more educated and accomplished group of women as the Ladies of Notre Dame and Saint Mary's. It is a privilege to serve you in whatever way I can. Board members have been busy planning activities for this year, and we continue to need your help and input. Perhaps you have an idea that could develop into a new Interest Group. Do you enjoy parties and entertaining? We are still looking for someone to chair our Spring Event. This could be something totally new and different, but the goal remains the same—fostering our friendships through shared experiences. Please consider what you can or would like to do to get involved. Contact me or any of the board members with your ideas and comments.

For those of you who do not know, here is a little history on this amazing group. The Ladies of Notre Dame was originally established in the spring of 1934 with Saint Mary's College joining in 1972. Six months later, the group was asked to change the name because "the use of the word 'Ladies' was deemed old-fashioned, with the term 'Women' offered as a substitute instead." The motion was defeated. A name change has been brought up at other times too, but no change has ever been adopted. Recently, the Board has received a new request to research a name change. Not unlike some members in 1934, the term 'Ladies' is viewed as being outdated and perhaps a bit staid. Nancy McAdams is leading an Ad Hoc committee looking into this.

While the official basis for the current name for our group's name is unknown, I believe the affinity to Our Lady on the Dome is the most logical reason. To me, lady refers to someone who is educated, cultured, and respected. To be called a lady is a sincere compliment. Not every female is a lady, but every female is a woman. The women's basketball team is called the "Lady Irish". On the other hand, the strength of the female gender is clearly conveyed in the word, woman. Even the Hail Mary states: "Blessed are you among women." Saint Mary's is a women's college and not a lady's college. These and other reasons demonstrate that the two viewpoints are equally valid.

Is it time to make a change? We are asking for input from our members. Please contact me or Nancy McAdams, <nocmc@comcast.net> or (574-273-2555) and let us know your thoughts. The more input we receive, the stronger our organization will be. Please let us hear from you before the end of this year. Thank you for your active involvement.

Here is a simple way that you can help our organization raise funds for our Scholarship for Local Women attending either the University of Notre Dame or Saint Mary's College. Tell your family and friends to designate The LND/SMC Scholarship for Local Women when they make their year-end contributions. All donations made to the Remembrance Card program will be acknowledged by the University or College as a donation to that institution for tax purposes. In addition for Notre Dame, any year-end contributions made to our scholarship fund will also count towards eligibility for the football ticket lottery. For further information about our Remembrance Card program see p. 7.

"Dinner & a Movie"

Members and guests will meet on the Notre Dame campus on Thursday, November 7, 2013 at Legends at 5:30 PM for dinner and then go afterwards to the DPAC Browning Cinema.

The movie is "Sister," directed by Ursula Meier, in French with English subtitles. Ursula Meier sets her second feature-length drama against the backdrop of a popular tourist destination in the Alps. From the broad, anonymous mass of people, she has distilled the story of one child who believes he has found a way to offset his breadline existence. This film is part of the "Young and Broke in Europe" film series. For more information check <http://nanovic.nd.edu/events/2013/11/07/19548-film-series-sister/>

Please RSVP by Tuesday, November 5, 2013, to Nancy about Legends and the movie. She will get tickets to the movie and give them to you at dinner.

Let's Eat Out!

A reviewer said: "I was somewhat surprised how good this place was. I would not have expected this out of a Japanese Fusion restaurant in an old Noble Roman's attached to a CVS!" Another said: "Well hello Zing!!! Glad to see something fun and unique go into downtown Mishawaka." Who these reviewers are, is not known. However, LND/SMC members, who have gone to this restaurant wish to share it with other members. If you like food and are willing to be adventurous, then circle your calendar for Monday, November 18, 2013 and get ready for Zing at 6:00 PM. Guests are welcome and reservations are requested by Sunday November 17, 2013, to chair. Maybe Zing will put a little zip in your life!

From the INTEREST GROUPS ...

CREATIVE COOKING

Creating Cooking meets on the second Tuesday of the month at 7:00 PM. In September, we enjoyed the tastes of fall by eating different root vegetables. The night started out as usual, each enjoying the other's company until we heard a loud gush. We turned to see a pumpkin on the floor and the remains from the delicious soup, that was inside, splattered across the kitchen floor. We rushed to clean up the mess and make sure our cook didn't burn herself. She was fine and laughed it off.

Our upcoming events:

- Decorative Presentation:

Tuesday, November 12, 2013, at Diane Entrikin's house, 1016 N Notre Dame Ave, South Bend

- Cooking with Fruit

Tuesday, December 10, 2013, at Maria Younes house.

Look for more information emailed to you prior to our events. If you would like to be on our list serve, please email chair, Ashley Hall.

EVENING LITERATURE

The Evening Literature group meets on the first Thursday of the month reading classical literature, drama or poetry. The text chosen for November 7, 2013, is Chris Bohjalian's Sand Castle Girls, a family tale that moves from 1915 in Aleppo, Syria, to 2012 in Bronxville, NY.

Val Bartels will lead this discussion.

Check with the chair for the meeting place.

The text for the December 5, 2013, meeting at Elaine Nicgor-ski's home has been changed to Reading Lolita in Tehran. The discussion leader is not yet known.

Silvia Rojas-Anadon will host the January 9, 2014 meeting where Julian Barnes' "page-turning" tale, The Sense of an Ending, will be explored. Barnes won the 2011 Man Booker Prize for this text. The discussion leader for this evening is not yet known. Check with the chair for directions to homes.

MORNING LITERATURE

Meeting at 9:30 AM on the third Monday of the month, the Morning Literature Group selects their books from among current fiction, non-fiction or biography.

On Monday, November 18, 2013, at the home of Mary Watt-Streider, Pat Kaiser will lead the discussion of The Girls of Atomic City by Denise Kiernan. This text "tells the unbelievable true story of young women during World War II dedicated to making fuel for the first atomic bomb-only they didn't know that!"

Isabel Charles will lead the discussion of Rachel Joyce's The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry on December 16, 2013.

While this tale loosely parallels John Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, it is a modern day walk of courage. It shows the meaning of everyday small decisions and actions upon our lives. Joyce's book was short-listed for the 2013 Man Booker Prize.

On January 20, 2014 the discussion of Julie Kavanagh's The Girl who Loved Camellias will be led by Barbara Sniegowski. This modern novel is the tragic story of Marie Duplessis, a famous Parisian courtesan who died at age 23. This woman was the inspiration for many artistic works. She is the model for Verdi's Violetta in his opera La Traviata.

Newcomer Morning Coffee

Our newcomer and visitor coffees have been going well. We owe a big "THANK YOU" to Nancy McAdams, host of the evening event, for the wonderful atmosphere she provided and all the "Grandmas for the day" who came to Beichner Center and allowed the playgroup Moms to interact with the Newcomers and each other.

Our next event will be Monday, November 11, 2013, at 9:30 AM at Renata Matousova's house. Children are welcome at this event. We hope to see many new and familiar faces.

Contact hostess Renata Matousova for more information, directions and to RSVP, if you are coming.

CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUP
FALL/ EARLY WINTER 2013

The playgroup had a number of fun events this fall: We explored the area meeting at Clay Park & the Potowatomi Zoo, playing at Fun N Fitness in Mishawaka, and enjoying the Matthys' Family Pumpkin Patch. We had three lapsits at members' homes where kids 0-preschool played while moms talked. At our September Beichner playgroup we talked, played, read "Ten Apples Up On Top," had an apple tasting and played with applesauce "playdough." The October Beichner Center was great fun. It coincided with our Newcomer's coffee and we had at least ten new women attend along with about twenty children. We had our first "Grandma for a day event" with eight grandmas coming to play with the kids. They read books, colored, made crafts and played with toys. We had a potluck brunch and Newcomers and Moms had a chance to have a relaxed breakfast and chat, while the kids felt pretty spoiled to have a Grandma giving them 110% of their attention. I have to say as one of the Moms, I felt pretty spoiled too, to be able to have a conversation (with complete sentences!) and also see my kids having such fun.

Our fall and winter continues to have a busy calendar thanks to Tamara Stojanovic Albahari, our busy around-the-town coordinator, along with Kristin Lund and Michelle Mayer, who are graciously hosting lapsit/ playdates at their homes. On November 7, 2013, at 10:00 AM, the playgroup has reserved Fun N Fitness. The November 8th Beichner Center will be our Harvest Party. We will have some fun harvest activities and games, and possibly some special guests (I'll keep you posted on Bigtent.com).

There will be lapsits on November 14th and 22nd at 10:00 AM at members' homes. On November 21st the playgroup will tour the Notre Dame Fire Station at 10:00 AM and 4:00 PM. Please RSVP on BigTent.com, so the fire station has an idea of tour size! On Monday December 2nd, at 10:00 AM we will meet for storytime, activities and play at the Kid's First Children's Museum. Finally on Monday, December 16th at 10:00 AM, we will tour the South Bend Chocolate Factory. This is a fun tour that includes some delicious samples and hair nets!! We are looking forward to a busy and festive November and December.

In the new year, our first two Beichner play dates will be: January 10th and February 14th, from 9-11AM. For more information about all of the playgroup events, please visit www.bigtent.com/groups/lndsmcplay.

Food Dance

Seventeen of our members took advantage of the opportunity to learn about Food Dance Restaurant in Kalamazoo, Michigan during our "Off the Beaten Path" trip on September 12, 2013. The innovative Food Dance is a farm-to-table restaurant. We dined in a private room, where we enjoyed in-season meals, and a talk from Chef Robb, who explained the kitchen's philosophy of farm-fresh food preparation, including how the pork is delivered and cut-up on site in 45 minutes! All breads are baked in the restaurant's bakery. The restaurant offers many evening classes and special events as well as a small gift shop which is destined to expand into a deli. Everyone was delighted with the very creative farm-themed, up-beat dining room.

Bus Tour of SB

Sue Solmos, an associate in the SB Department of Community Investment, and a former Indianapolis realtor related the ethnic, racial and religious diversity of people, diversity of architectural styles, neighborhood identity, and resurgence embodied here.

At one time, the community was very wealthy with its manufacturing plants, talented tool and die workers, as well as general workforce. One item of note was the invention of the "chilled plow" by a Scotch immigrant, James Oliver. The Oliver Chilled Plow Works was known around the world. The five Studebaker brothers started manufacturing wagons carriages prior to the Civil War. The manufacturing of automobiles started in the early 1900's and continued through 1964.

As the bus tour went through the neighborhoods of South Bend, Ms. Solmos wove historical information into today's neighborhood. Two of the more important "upgrade" renovations are: IUSB's Civil Rights Heritage Center (2009) located in the former Engman Natatorium, a city public swimming pool that was fully integrated in 1950; and

Notre Dame's Center for Arts and Culture (2011) located in the former Hansel Center, originally built by Dr. Hansel as a free neighborhood medical clinic for children.

Today the Center for Arts and Culture supports a fine art print studio, an art gallery and the University's Community Relations Department. The Kaiser Home (shown below) located on W. Colfax and S. William St. is an example of a repurposing in process of a historical structure. It is being refurbished for use for weddings, dinners, etc.

If you are interested in our city and have the chance, it is worth the two hours to take this tour. Contact Sue Somos at 574-235-5879 or <ssolmos@ southbendin.gov>. Thanks to Nancy McAdams for organizing this for LND/SMC.

Windows of Sacred Heart Basilica

Many women arrived at Sacred Heart Basilica's door on the morning of October 14, 2013, to find it locked. The sacristan was late! When Cecilia Cunningham opened the door to them, she invited all into a story of the glorious windows of this space. The choice of subjects ... twenty-four female saints and sixteen male saints ... for the windows of the nave reflected Fr. Sorin's respect for both women and men in the church. The women were chosen among queens, founders of religious orders and recognized holy women. Fr. Sorin's first homily as a priest was on the subject of Mary. Cunningham spent the majority of her time relating the devotion of Fr. Sorin to the Blessed Virgin Mary and her life ... from her birth to Ann and Joachim through her childhood to the birth of Jesus ... which are told in windows of the eastern apse. Fr. Moreau's concept of a religious order of priests, sisters and brothers was reflective of the Holy Family ... Christ as priest, Mary as sister and Joseph as brother.

St. Theresa & St. Clara

The design (by Carmelite Sisters of Le Mans, France) and painting (by Eugène Hucher and associates) of the windows are exceptional. They show the high level of expertise of the French glaziers of the 19th century. When the sun is shining, pay a visit to the Basilica and spend a little time looking at the exquisite art in our midst. Thank you, Fr. Sorin. Thank you, Cecilia Cunningham. We anticipate your future book on these windows.

Tour of The Morris Inn

The tour of the Morris Inn attracted many women and two emeritus professors! This renovation and expansion in our own front yard showed us why it has been afforded a 4 star rating. The rooms are spacious and comfortable. The round table for 8 is still in the corner in Sorin's. The banquet halls are most attractive and the entire place emitted a true hospitable greeting: "Welcome to Notre Dame." You are encouraged to visit.

From the VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES CHAIR . . .

The Basilica of the Sacred Heart at Notre Dame is in need of volunteers. All of the guides are volunteers. The normal touring hours are: Sunday thru Friday from 1:00 to 4:00 PM and Monday thru Friday from 9:00 to 11:00 AM

The assignments are very flexible and one can sign up for any day, or time period. The "Self Guided Tour Pamphlet" available at each entrance is the format of a Basilica Tour. You will be provided with additional information on the different features in the Basilica as background knowledge in conducting a tour.

Training consists of reading some of the background information on features in which you maybe interested, and accompanying trained guides on tours until you are comfortable in welcoming visitors and leading tours yourself.

If you think that this opportunity is suitable for you, please contact: Mike Fitzpatrick, the Tour Guide Coordinator by email <MFitzpatrick@stanz.com> or by phone 574-631-7329. He will welcome your service.

From the CHAIR OF THE HOLIDAY TEA . . .

HELP NEEDED.

PLEASE APPLY.

Mairin Wilkie, a member who recently joined LND/SMC, has agreed to be chair of the Holiday Tea. She is greatly in need of volunteers to help her bring supplies and help with the decor decisions for this affair. The entertainment has already been arranged. She has never been to one of these teas, so she is hoping that volunteers, who have formerly been part of such a committee could assist and familiarize new volunteers, who in turn could assist next year.

If you could help Mairin, please contact her at <mairin.wilkie@gmail.com>. She would be most appreciative
